Map Rights

By submitting a map to the site you confirm that you have all applicable rights to publish the map, including but not limited to:

- Music distribution rights
- Rights to the map data
- Rights to publish any additional content included in the uploaded zip
- Permission to grant Ragnacustoms distribution rights to all files contained in the uploaded zip

Republishing or using another user's content posted on Ragnacustoms, including derivative works, without explicit written permission is a violation of this policy. It is not enough to mention the users' work in the description.

If you are a copyright owner or an agent of a copyright owner, and you believe that material available on our services infringes your copyright, please visit our DMCA policy for more information on filing a notice of infringement.

AI or Auto-Generated Content

You must declare truthfully whether or not automatic note generation tools were used in the creation of the uploaded content by checking the "automated-made map" box during the upload process. Misrepresenting your upload as human generated when an external auto-generation tool such as BeatSage or a Beat Saber conversion tool was used in all or part of the mapping process will result in the upload being removed and a warning issued.

Content Guidelines

The following apply to the content in a map zip upload, map title, and description:

- Do not distribute viruses, malware, or phish others by any means such as exploits or links.

The following apply to the content in user-generated reviews:

- Do not leave reviews on your own maps (self-reviews) or maps that you have not played
- Do not use personal attacks and/or harassment against mappers or other community members. Remember that there are real people on the other side of the maps on this site.
- Reviews that only reference the song audio and not the map ("This song is terrible", "I hate anime"), where it's clear that the reviewer was attempting a map that was too difficult for their skill level, or that only include random characters/keyboard spam will be removed.

Reviews that violate these terms will be edited or removed and repeated violation may result in the suspension of review privileges or account access.
